4.10 SEXUAL HARASSMENT

- The employee may not embark on any action amounting to sexual harassment.
- Whenever the employee has reasonable grounds for believing that there has been a breach of this section by other Municipal employees, the employee must without delay report the matter to his/her immediate Supervisor/ Manager.

4.11 GENERAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Any offence in terms of Council's Code of Conduct will be dealt with in accordance with Council's Disciplinary Code.
- All employees will :
 - a) Act fairly, justly with courtesy and efficiency;
 - b) Be critically aware of public relations and in accordance thereof be helpful, polite, efficient and understanding to the public and staff;
 - c) Care for the property and affairs of Council in a fit and proper manner, in accordance with policy, procedure, legislation and while taking into account the avoidance of abuse and waste;
 - d) Be critically aware of the need to project a positive organisational image, and will deal professionally with the public.
- Any form of dishonesty is regarded as unacceptable and will result in appropriate disciplinary action.
- Where actions by the employee destroy the relationships of trust upon which the employment relationship is based, dismissal would be regarded as an appropriate action.
- Misconduct which occurs after hours, but which threatens the continuity and existence of the employment contract, or which harms the reputation of the Council, or is seriously reprehensible in the eyes of the public, will lead to appropriate disciplinary action being taken, which in turn could result in the possibility of dismissal.
- As a line function, it is the responsibility of all Managers and Supervisors to maintain discipline according to all current legislative guidelines and internal policy.

- In all disciplinary cases, the relevant Manager/Supervisor is expected to handle the discipline issue at the lowest level and with due diligence.
- Should Supervisors and Managers deliberately fail to conduct a case with due diligence, this will be seen in an extremely serious light, which in turn will result in appropriate disciplinary action being taken.
