1. PREAMBLE

The Ngqushwa Local Municipality values the contribution of all its employees, the retention policy shall only apply to selected categories of employees. Retention policy is aimed at retaining employees who wish to stay with the Municipality and not look for employment elsewhere.

The Retention policy does not involve just the awarding of higher salary but also involved actions to promote an enabling environment and a satisfied workforce.

2. DEFINITIONS

Scarce Skills: means skills that are needed to realise the Municipality's goals and objectives, but which are difficult to recruit and expensive to replace. These are the skills, which are in short supply in the labour market. These will not always be the same and may change due to various reasons e.g., changes in the labour market environment (supply and demand), changes in the strategic direction of the Municipality.

Critical/Valued Skills: means those scarce skills which are critical to the Municipality; however, the focus is not on the scarcity of the skill as such, but rather on the critical staff member who contributes positively and whose loss would have a negative impact on the municipality's ability to meet its goals.

High-risk Skills: means scarce skills which are critical to the Municipality; however the specific employees who possess these skills are either demotivated or have reached a career ceiling, and as such are considering leaving the Municipality or for some reason are highly susceptible to poaching by other institutions

Proactive Retention Strategies: means those strategies applied to attract employees to the Municipality and retain those who are already employed.

2. NAME OF POLICY

This is the Skills Retention Policy of the Ngqushwa Local Municipality

3. OBJECTIVES OF POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to outline the mechanisms, tools and strategies that can be applied within the municipality in order to retain critical, scarce and high risk skills, whichever is applicable. The primary emphasis of this policy is to ensure that the Municipality proactively retains employees to ensure that the Municipality has the best, well trained and suitable employees occupying key positions within the municipality at all times.

4. LEGAL FRAMEWORK

- Labour Relations Act, 1995, (Act No. 66 of 1995)
- Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1997 (Act No. 75 of 1997)
- Employment Equity Act, 1998, (Act No. 55 of 1998)
- Local Government : Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998)
- Local Government : Municipal Systems Act, 2000, (Act No. 32 of 2000)

5. SCOPE OF POLICY

- 5.1 This policy is applicable to all permanent employees of the Municipality regardless of job title or salary level, race, gender and physical abilities.
- 5.2 Employee nominated for retention should have proven consistent above-average performance in his/her most recent assessment.
- 5.3 Employee must not have records of serious misconduct.

6. PRINCIPLES OF RETENTION POLICY

- 6.1 The application of the tools, mechanisms and strategies contained in this policy should complement key legislative and policy directives and prescripts that relate to various aspects of human resources management within local government. In situations where the provisions contained herein may be deemed to be contradictory or to be in conflict with these directives and prescripts, this policy shall not be applicable.

- 6.2 It is expected that the provisions contained herein will be implemented in good faith and as such any requests or decisions made in line with this policy will need to stand this test.
- 6.3 The decision to retain staff will be dependent on the proven abilities to possess critical, high-risk, or scarce skills of the relevant employee. To this effect, the outcomes of the performance management process will be critical in approving in the proper application of this policy.
- 6.4 All decisions to retain staff will be made at the discretion of the municipal manager in accordance with the organogram approved by Council.
- 6.5 This policy shall compliment all relevant interventions that are implemented within the municipality to ensure that it becomes an employer of choice.

7. CATEGORIES OF EMPLOYEES TO BE RETAINED

7.1 Scarce Skills

Means skills that are needed to realise the Municipality's goals and objectives, but which are difficult to recruit and expensive to replace. These are the skills, which are in short supply in the labour market. These will not always be the same and may change due to various reasons e.g., changes in the labour market environment (supply and demand), changes in the strategic direction of the Municipality.

7.2 Critical/Valued Skills

Means those scarce skills which are critical to the Municipality; however, the focus is not on the scarcity of the skill as such, but rather on the critical staff member who contributes positively and whose loss would have a negative impact on the municipality's ability to meet its goals.

7.3 High-risk Skills

Means scarce skills which are critical to the Municipality; however the specific employees who possess these skills are either de-motivated or have reached a career ceiling, and as such are considering leaving the Municipality or for some reason are highly susceptible to poaching by other institutions.

8. RETENTION STRATEGIES FOR TARGETED CATEGORIES
